

Arlington Capital Advisors Advises Pure Barre in its Transaction with WJ Partners

Denver, CO – October 25, 2012 Arlington Capital Advisors, LLC, a boutique investment bank that specializes in advising closely-held middle market businesses, announced today that it advised and facilitated a private equity recapitalization of Pure Barre Franchising, LLC and its affiliates (“Pure Barre” or the “Company”) by Spartanburg, South Carolina based WJ Partners. Arlington Capital Advisors’ principals, acting as registered securities agents of Burch & Company, Inc., were the exclusive financial advisors to Pure Barre on the transaction.

Founded in 2001 by Carrie Rezabek Dorr, Denver, Colorado based Pure Barre is the leader and premier brand in the rapidly-growing barre based fitness industry, with 100 studios open across 29 states and the District of Columbia and a strong pipeline to support future growth. Pure Barre’s fitness technique, fusing elements of ballet, Pilates and weights, is considered one of the fastest, most effective ways to change the shape of your body. Using small isometric movements at a ballet barre, Pure Barre lifts the seat, tones thighs, abs and arms and burns fat in record breaking time.

“Carrie has created a true cult consumer brand and has positioned the Company well for future growth. From the onset of our work with Pure Barre, our focus was to pair the Company with a financial partner capable of helping Carrie and the Pure Barre team leverage the existing brand and rapidly growing studio base to take the business to the next level,” said Vann Russell, Managing Director of Arlington Capital Advisors. “We feel very confident that we found such a partner in WJ Partners, which shares common values with Pure Barre and its management team. We are excited to watch this new partnership flourish.”

“The team at Arlington supported us through the entire process and really worked hard to help us find the right partner and secure an intelligent investment,” said Carrie Rezabek Dorr, Founder and CEO of Pure Barre.
